Mo to this tail . . .

FORMER Territorian Louis O'Loughlin really got into the Movember spirit by shaving a cat from his face and chest hair, no less.

don Bombers legend Michael Long were having a quiet chat and a bit of a laugh.

MUSICAL LETTERBOXES

AN APARTMENT block in Stuart Park, Darwin, has been moved three times. It started out as 27 Dinah Beach Rd; then it became 27 Ruddick Cct; now it is at 73 Ruddick Cct. Residents on Gardens Rd, Darwin, also tell Bushranger that Australia Post thinks they live on Gardens Hill Cres, and deliver their mail accordingly.

FLOOD CLEAR AS MUD

THE CLP has invited residents and community groups to give feedback on the Rapid Creek Action Plan, which aims to reduce the flooding risk for about 100 homes along the creek corridor. What does the plan say, you ask? Well, not much. The draft plan is a potted history and sketchy list of options. And, according to the frequently asked questions section, the final plan will only be released "after consultation with the community".

HEY YOU, NICE BIKE BIZ

A BICYCLE restorer has named his outfit "Hey you, nice bike" after the October NT News story about a bike theft victim who spotted his stolen ride being cycled along a Darwin street, and supposedly called out the immortal phrase. The alleged thief replied: "Thanks, I stole it", and led a sentence on ABC radio on November 19, thusly: "I as Chief Mi
